Pray for my Priest

Spiritual Mother Commitment Form

I, _____, commit to spiritually adopt a priest in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

As a Spiritual Mother, I promise, to the best of my ability to make this a “vocation within a vocation” whereby on a daily basis I include my priest son in all of my prayers, sacrifices and ordinary works for his sanctification and fortification.

I promise to accept the son randomly chosen for me by the Holy Spirit.

I promise to remain anonymous and to not reveal the identity of my priest son to anyone.

I promise to send him each year a card on his birthday and on the anniversary of his ordination reminding him of my lifelong commitment to him. I promise to sign the card --your Spiritual Mother reminding him that I am standing in proxy for the Blessed Virgin Mary, the first Spiritual Mother for priests.

I promise to utilize my “spiritual mother bracelet” as a reminder to me of my commitment to my priest son.

At the moment of my death, if I wish my priest son to know my identity, I promise to designate a trusted person to advise him of my demise so that he may pray for my soul.

If, at any time, I wish to be relieved of this commitment, I promise to advise the Pray for My Priest Apostolate so that my priest son will be assigned to another spiritual mother.

If my priest son goes to his eternal rest, I will be advised so that if I choose I may attend his services, pray for his soul and adopt another priest son.
