

Liturgical Notes for Servers Pastoral visits and Mass

Censor Bearer

This server ministers the thurible and boat during the Mass. There are three incensations; at the beginning of Mass, at the Gospel and during the Preparation of the Gifts. Before the Entrance procession begins, the server will bring the censor and boat to Bishop Deliman for the imposition of incense. He will lead the procession, bowing before the altar when arriving in the sanctuary. He then turns left and stands near the side of altar for the incensation of the altar and cross. The deacon or Master of Ceremonies will hold the boat while the server brings the thurible before Bishop Deliman. After the imposition of incense, the server takes the boat, hands the thurible to the deacon or Master of Ceremonies and then returns to the Floor at the side of the altar. When the incensation is finished, the server brings the boat and the thurible before Bishop Deliman. He bows, hands the boat to the deacon or Master of ceremonies and kneels for the imposition. He leads the deacon of Master of Ceremonies to the altar to take the Book of the Gospels and then to the ambo for the proclamation of the Gospel. After the incensation and the completion of the Gospel, the server returns to the sacristy.

At the end of the General Intercessions, the server carrying the thurible and boat, stands at the side of the altar at floor level. After the gifts have been prepared and presented, he approaches Bishop Deliman, hands the boat to the deacon or Master of Ceremonies, and presents the thurible for the imposition. He returns to the bottom step and takes the thurible after the incensation completed. He returns the thurible and boat to the sacristy.

At the end of the Mass, the server, carrying the thurible and boat, leads the recessional procession out of the Church.

Cross Bearer

The cross bearer carries the cross in the entrance processional and the recessional, and also assists the deacon in setting the altar and receiving the gifts during the Preparation Rite.

The cross bearer follows the censor in the procession, bows upon entering the sanctuary, and places the cross in the sacristy if it is not the cross of the Mass. The server then takes their place in the sanctuary.

After the General Intercessions, the cross bearer assists the deacon in setting the altar, and along with the acolytes, receives the gifts at the entrance of the sanctuary.

N.B. Please allow time for altar to be prepared. Gifts bearer should not process until Bishop Deliman rises from the Chair to receive them.

Following the solemn Blessing and dismissal, the cross bearer lines up at the edge of the sanctuary with the other ministers, bows with Bishop Deliman to the altar, and follows the censor bearer down the aisle in the recessional.

Acolytes with Candles

The two acolytes carry the candles in the entrance procession, the procession with the Book of the Gospels and in the recessional. They also assist the deacon in receiving the gifts, ministering the wine and water and washing Bishop Deliman's hands at the Preparation Rite and after Communion.

The acolytes carry the candles on each side of the cross bearer during the entrance procession. Arriving in the sanctuary, they bow, and place their candles in the sacristy unless they are the candles of the Mass.

At the Gospel Acclamation, the acolytes, with candles, come before the altar and accompany the deacon with the Book of the Gospels to the ambo, standing on each side. After the Gospel is proclaimed, the acolytes place candles in the sacristy and return to their seats.

The acolytes, following the General Intercessions, assist the deacon in receiving the gifts at Bishop Deliman's chair. They then minister the wine and water, and wash Bishop Deliman's hands after the incensation of the altar, gifts and people.

When the distribution of Holy Communion is finished and Blessed Sacrament returned to the tabernacle, the acolytes go with dish, water and towel to the Chair where Bishop Deliman will wash his hands.

After the dismissal, the acolytes with candles accompany the cross to the edge of the sanctuary, where they face the altar and bow with Bishop Deliman. They walk on each side of the Cross during the recessional.

Mitre and Crosier Bearers

These servers carry Bishop Deliman's mitre and crosier, assisting him at the chair.

In the entrance procession, the mitre and crosier bearers wear vimps and walk directly behind Bishop Deliman. When they reach the sanctuary, they receive the mitre and crosier from the master of ceremonies and bow as Bishop Deliman bows or genuflects. They then proceed to their chairs and remain in place there following the directions of the master of ceremonies. Bishop Deliman will wear his mitre when he sits, receives the gifts, processes and give the blessing. He carries the crosier during processions, the Gospel proclamation, and the final Blessing.

During the introductory Rites and Scripture readings, the mitre and crosier bearers stand by their chairs. During the homily they sit. They stand at their chairs for the Professions of Faith, General

Intercessions and reception of gifts. They kneel during the Eucharistic Prayer and the Communion Rite.

After the final prayer and blessing, the mitre and crosier bearers follow Bishop Deliman to the foot of the altar and stand off to the side. When Bishop Deliman genuflects/bows, they bow and follow him out in the recessional.

Book Bearer

The book bearer walks behind the mitre and crosier bearers in the entrance procession and the recessional, however, he/she does not carry the book in procession. The book then should be prepared prior to Mass and left in place at the book bearer's chair. Upon entering the sanctuary, the book bearer bows as Bishop Deliman bows/genuflects. Together with the mitre and crosier bearer, the book bearer goes to his/her chair. He/she remains there with the book in hand until the MC calls him forward to the Chair. Bishop Deliman will not need the book until the Opening Prayer unless, the MC determines otherwise, in which case he will direct the book bearer to the chair at the appropriate time. After the Opening Prayer, the bearer returns to his/her chair.

During the Scripture readings of the Mass, they remain with the mitre and crosier bearers standing at the side of the chair. They sit for the homily. The book bearer stands before Bishop Deliman for the Profession of Faith and the General Intercessions.

During the Preparation Rite they sit at their chair and kneel during the Eucharistic Prayer and the rite of Communion.

Following the distribution of Holy Communion, the book bearer returns to the chair for the Prayer after Communion and the Solemn Blessing.

The book bearer bows as Bishop Deliman genuflects/bow in front of the altar and then follow the mitre and crosier bearers in the recessional without the book.
